A NOTABLE DINNER COMPANY MEETS AT WOODLEY.

Capt. Hobson's Wedding Day is Set for This Month-Other Events.

last night in honor of the German ambassador and the Baroness von Sternburg The other guests included Secretary and Mrs. Taft, Associate Justice Brown of the United States Supreme Court and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Nicholas Fish, Lieutenant and Mrs. von Bredow, and Col. Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the insular bureau of the War Department. Lieutenant and Mrs. von Bredow, the latter a daughter of Senator Newlands, have just returned from their wedding tour and will sail for Germany May 20.

The marriage of Miss Grizelda Houston Hull and Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson will take place May 25 at Tuxedo at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Huntington Hull. It is probable that Miss Lucia E. Hull will be her sister's maid of honor. As Captain Hobson's father, Judge James M. Hobson, died recently, the wedding will be a very quiet affair, and after the honeymoon the young people will make their home upon the Hobson estate, Magnolia Grove, at Greensbor-ough, Ala. Mrs. George L. Ronalds gave a tea Saturday at Tuxedo for Miss Hull.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Conway Peters and Capt. Smedley Darlington But-ler, U. S. M. C., will take place in June at Bay Head, N. J. The Rev. Dr. George N. Christian will perform the ceremony in the Bay Head Church. The bride's sisters, Miss Edith M. Peters and Miss Hope C. Peters, will be maids of honor. Miss Margaret Felton, Miss Eleanor Felton, Miss Ruth Felton and Miss Dorothy Felton of Chicago, cousins of the bride; Miss Louise Black of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Louise Lippitt and Miss Eleanor Howard Weeden of Providence, R. I., and Miss Pauline Peters of Columbus, Ohio a cousin of the bride, will be bridemaids. Captain Butler's brother, Mr. Samuel Butler, will be best man, and the ushers will be officers in the United States Marine Corps. Only the immediate families and intimate friends will mediate families and intimate friends will be present at the ceremony, owing to the church being small. After the breakfast, at the bride's home, Captain and Mrs. But-ler will sail for the Philippine Islands, where Captain Butler will be stationed. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peters of Philadelphia. The bride-groom, well known in this city, is the son of Representative and Mrs. Butler of Pennof Representative and Mrs. Butler of Penn-

Mme. Bonaparte sailed Saturday for Europe to pass the summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Count and Countess Von Moltke. Mr. Jerome Bonaparte went abroad about a month or so ago.

With tooting of horns and the fanfare of a single trumpet a coach and four was driven up F street Saturday morning with a party consisting of clerks from section D their friends, who took a day off to pay a visit to Great Falls. They accomplished the feat without accident. Dinner was taken on the Virginia shore, after which the party tramped down to the bluffs and took snapshots of the falls and the coach. The trip was organized by Mr. John H. Wood, assistant chief of the record division, and Mr. E. E. Munsey, chief of section D, and was a great success in every respect.

A greater number of the changes made affect only highways in small subdivisions, but the principal thoroughfares are as follows: R street is changed to Q street, S street to Cambridge place, T street to New Cut road, U street to R street, Lovers' lane to 31st street, T street to New Cut road, U street to R street, W street to R street, W street to T street, Madison street to U street and Y street to W street.

Annual thanksgiving services were observed by the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows last evening at the Mt. Zion Methodist Church of Georgetown, under the ausodist Church of Georgetown, under the aus-pices of District Lodge, No. 20. Several hundred people attended the services. The principal address was delivered by the pas-"Sweet Jesus, have mercy on him." CORCORAN. In sad and loving remembrance of my dear son and our beloved brother, EMMETP CORCORAN, who died one year ago today, May 15, 1904, in Alken, S. C.

Gone, but not forgotten BY FATHER, BROTHER AND SISTER HOWARD. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, PRECILLA C. HOWARD, who de-parted this life two years ago today, May 15, 1905.

Two years have passed and how we miss her; Friends may think the wound has healed, But they little know the sorrow That lies within our hearts concealed. Gone, but never forgotten.

BY HER DEVOTED SON, WALTER E. HOWARD, AND DAUGHTER, MOLLIE A. HOWARD. McNELLEY. In sad but loving remembrance of my daughter, ADA I. McNELLEY (nee Pop-kins), who died five years ago today, May 15,

Every spot is desolate and drear,
As I listen for the voice of Ada,
That I never more on earth shall hear.
